

The Australian Journal of Emergency Management

Vol. 23 No. 4, November 2008 ISSN: 1324 1540

PUBLISHER

The Australian Journal of Emergency Management is the official journal of Emergency Management Australia, a Division of the Federal Attorney-General's Department, and is the nation's most highly rated journal in its field. The purpose of the Journal is to build capacity in the emergency management industry in Australia. It provides access to information and knowledge for an active emergency management research community and practitioners of emergency management.

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

Tony Pearce, Director General,
Emergency Management Australia.

AJEM ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Christine Jenkinson, Emergency Management
Australia

Roger Jones, Director, Board of the Victoria
State Emergency Service Authority

Chas Keys, formerly of NSW State Emergency Service

Graham Dwyer, Department of Justice, Victoria

Prof Jennifer McKay, University of South Australia

Andrew Coghlan, Australian Red Cross,
Melbourne

David Parsons, Sydney Water Corporation

Cate Moore, Emergency Management Australia

Morrie Bradley, Emergency Management
Australia

PUBLISHER and EDITORIAL TEAM

Grey Worldwide Canberra

Manager, Chris Robey

Editor, Anita Cleaver

Design and Typesetting by Grey Worldwide

CIRCULATION

Published on the last day of August, November, February and May each year. Copies are distributed quarterly without charge to subscribers throughout Australia and overseas.

COPYRIGHT

Material in The Australian Journal of Emergency Management is protected under the Commonwealth Copyright Act 1968.

No material may be reproduced in part or in whole without written consent from the copyright holders. The views in this journal are not necessarily the views of Emergency Management Australia.

SUBMISSIONS

The Australian Journal of Emergency Management welcomes submissions. Please contact us on ajem@ema.gov.au for a copy of our Contributors' Guidelines. Articles for publication may be forwarded to:

The Australian Journal of Emergency
Management
Main Road MT MACEDON VIC 3441

SUBSCRIPTIONS & SUBSCRIPTION ENQUIRIES

For your free subscription contact us at
Email: ajem@ema.gov.au or fax 03 5421 5272
Or visit us online at www.ema.gov.au/ajem
Changes to subscription details can be made by emailing ajem@ema.gov.au

EDITORIAL ENQUIRIES ONLY

Tel: (02) 6295 3662

Contents

Vol 23 | No 4 | November 2008

Please note that contributions to the Australian Journal of Emergency Management are reviewed. Academic papers (denoted by ) are peer reviewed to appropriate academic standards by independent, qualified experts.

FOREWORD	2
Communiqué	3
Advances in risk assessment for Australian emergency management Trevor Jones introduces the first of our two special all hazards risk assessment editions of the Australian Journal of Emergency Management.	4
Assessing risk from meteorological phenomena using limited and biased databases Alan Sharp discusses a number of meteorological databases and briefly evaluates their usefulness in risk assessment.	9
Assessing the impacts of tropical cyclones Using Darwin as a test case, Craig Arthur, Anthony Schofield and Bob Cechet assess the benefits of Geoscience Australia's Tropical Cyclone Risk Modelling tool in assessing the potential impact of a tropical cyclone.	14
Flood risk management in Australia The National Flood Risk Advisory Group introduces and discusses the National Flood Risk Management Guideline.	21
Australian Safer Community Awards	28
Tsunami planning and preparation in Western Australia: application of scientific modelling and community engagement Hall, Stevens and Sexton explain how a leading-edge tsunami impact assessments project combines science, technology and spatial data.	30
Policy implications of future increases in extreme weather events due to climate change Karl Sullivan of the Insurance Council of Australia outlines the shifts required to increase future communities' resilience to more extreme weather events.	37
The cost of natural disasters in Australia: the case for disaster risk reduction Ryan Crompton and John McAneney examine the cost to Australia of natural disasters.	43
Phoenix: development and application of a bushfire risk management tool Tolhurst, Shields and Chong discuss the bushfire risk management model being developed by the Bushfire CRC.	47