

CONSENT FOR USE OF PHOTOGRAPH(S)

The Australian Government Attorney-General's Department (Department) produces publications and other materials for the purpose of:

- publicising the programs and services of the Department and its portfolio agencies independently and in conjunction with other Australian Government agencies and other stakeholders
- informing stakeholders of changes and events in the Department's key areas of responsibility in managing Australia's system of law and justice, including civil and criminal justice, national security, emergency management, disaster relief and mitigation, and assisting the Territories, and
- for any other purpose that the Department and other agencies of the Australian Government may undertake in fulfilling their responsibilities.

The production of these publications and materials may involve the production and distribution of information and promotional material such as:

- departmental publications such as Annual Reports, posters, brochures, booklets and displays
- articles and advertisements in newspapers and magazines
- television and radio advertisements, and
- intranet and internet sites, including publishing materials on social media sites.

The purpose of this form is to obtain your consent for the use of your photograph (s) by the Department and other Australian Government agencies in the production and dissemination of this material. Please complete and sign this form below.

Consent to use my photograph(s)

I consent to the Australian Government using, reproducing and disclosing my photograph(s) in situations including, but not limited to, those described above. I consent to my name being published or used in association with the photograph(s).

I agree that the Attorney-General's Department has no financial commitment or obligation to me as a result of providing this consent or the use, reproduction and disclosure of my photograph(s). Whilst the copyright for the photograph(s) is held by me, the photograph(s) can be used for promotional (but not commercial) and work related purposes by the Australian Government, including in publications by the Department with appropriate acknowledgement to me.

I expressly release the Australian Government from, and indemnify it against, any and all claims arising out of its use of my photograph(s), and from and against all costs and damages that may be incurred by the Australian Government or its officers or agents, in defending or settling those claims.
