ALIES WORKSHOP 2006

Disasters, terrorism, corruption, crime...

a librarian's role in uncertain times

09 – 13 April 2006
Mt Macedon, Victoria

ALIES Purpose

Australasian Libraries in the Emergency Sector (ALIES) is a cooperative information network which aims to serve the common interests of emergency management agencies.

ALIES Vision

Emergency management organisations have the information capacity for current and future challenges.

ALIES Aims to

- Promote and support the professional status of emergency management agency libraries and information services, and the use of information resources, facilities and professional networks.
- Provide opportunities for the exchange of knowledge, experience, skills and resources throughout the network
- Provide a mechanism for contributing to wider policy issues affecting emergency management practices.
